CAPT. DYER COMMANDS.

Inspection and Drill on Cruiser Philadelphia Yesterday.

Capt. N. M. Dyer, who relieves Capt. C. S. Cotton from the command of the U. S. S. Philadelphia, took charge of that vessel at 2:30 p. m. yesterday. The ceremonies began at 9:30 yesterday morning, when the crew was inspected, all storerooms and compartments of the ship opened and everything looked its best. At 1 p. m. a general alarm was sounded, the ship cleared for action, followed in rapid succession by "Arm and away for distant service" and "Fire drill." Following this, the crew was mustered aft, Captain Cotton reading the orders relieving him, and Captain Dyer reading those which ordered him to assume command. In reading his orders, Captain Cotton thanked the officers and crew for the excellent condition of the ship and regretted his departure.

He is granted two months' leave of absence. Captain Dyer's inspection was a minute one, but he could find nothing but the best of order in every department.

Schilling's Best Will Leave.

W. H. Baugh, representative of Schilling's best teas, etc., and G. W. McNear's flour and millstuffs, leaves for his home in San Francisco on the 16th inst., after a visit covering something over 10 months on the Islands. Mr. Baugh is the first commercial agent coming to Honolulu to pay the required $500 license, his firm preferring to assume that expense than to work through other dealers. During his visit he has made "Schilling's Best" and Port Costa flour household words, and the demand for the goods is constantly increasing.
